STATE MINERS PLAN FIGHT ON WAGE SLASHING

COLUMBUS, Jan. 30—"We will not even consider any proposal from any operator proposing reduction in wages," declared Lee Hall, Columbus, president of the Ohio United Mine Workers, today.

President Hall's statement was prompted by the announcement by southern Ohio coal operators that the nearly 20,000 miners employed in the southern Ohio coal fields will be asked to accept by March 1st, wage cuts, effective April 1, next, ranging from 30 to 46 per cent. The operators announced also, that the "checkoff" will be eliminated after April 1.

Leaders of Ohio miners indicated strongly that, unless the operators give up their efforts to cut wages, union miners in the southern Ohio coal mines will be ordered to go out on strike March 31.

"The operators will find they have one of the hardest fights on their hands they have ever experienced, if they stand by their announced proposal to put through the wage scale just proposed," declared President Hall today.

Expressing belief that not all the southern Ohio operators will try to force lower wages, George W. Savage, Columbus, secretary-treasurer of the Ohio United Mine Workers, declared:

"We will not take up the matter of a wage scale for southern Ohio until after our national convention starting at Indianapolis, February 14, where we expect to formulate a policy that will guide us in our dealings with all operators who refuse to enter into wage scale conferences with our union."

Miners officials here said they knew nothing about the action of the operators in determining upon the proposed lower wage scale until after the operators had made their decision public.

Lady Bootlegger Works at Lorain

LORAIN, Jan. 30—This city claims to have the oldest woman bootlegger in the State. Last night Patrolman Miller saw a man and woman talking together about midnight. He approached them and the woman who carried a can dropped it and ran. He arrested Adam Parkacz, and found a pint of liquor on him. He said he had just bought it from an old woman of 70 years. He plead not guilty to illegally having liquor in his possession and was placed under $500 bond. The police have had other reports regarding the aged bootlegger, who operates only late at night.

they never had a meaner job than cleaning up the country. They make enemies with every arrest and there is a tendency for them to go easy if they do not have the backing of the public. When it comes to election time, be on the job. If the church sits by and lets the politicians get away with every thing the temperance cause will suffer. If the officers are given the right kind of support the liquor business will sooner or later be strangled. When we can show politicians that the church vote is stronger than the saloon vote there will be no more trouble, and no danger from Congress.

Praises Policemen

A. R. Webber presided at the meeting, and Mayor Jones led the singing. Madame Gardner Bartlett gave a fine solo, and Mrs. Nellie Hill, president of the county W. C. T. U. a short address.

At the close of the meeting Sheriff Buckus was called on and said that he had been given loyal support by the people and believed they wanted the law obeyed. He should continue to do his duty as long as he was in office. Prosecuting Attorney Lawrence Webber, also said he had done his best to stamp out law violations, and believed that progress was being made. T. C. Bowen, Lorain, spoke briefly on conditions there and said that while there had been considerable violation of the liquor laws, it was on account of the large foreign population, and they were beginning to find out that it is better to be good than bad.

Mayor Jones spoke briefly, and told of the work of his department and some of the problems he had to deal with. He praised the Elyria police force and said they were doing splendid work in helping to clean up the city.

caused them a lot of trouble. Barton deserted her in September, 1920 and his present whereabouts are unknown. She was given his interest in the real estate, when her divorce was granted on August 19, 1921.

Since that time she has lived at the Hollenden hotel, Cleveland, the Deshler hotel, Columbus, and at the time of her attempt at suicide was living at the Gilsey hotel.

Mrs. Barton was in this city last June at the time of the trial of her father, Robert Young, who was charged with assaulting a man on a green line car, putting out his eye. The charge was made that the man had insulted Mrs. Barton on the car and the father assaulted him. He was convicted of assault and battery, fined $20 and costs and twenty days in jail. That was the last heard of her here until today.

an intricate mass. It may be that this wreckage contains still other bodies, but the searchers expressed the belief that all had been removed. At any rate the work was halted. It will be gone over again, however in all probability.

Tales of heroism and unmitigated personal sacrifice came in the wake of the tragedy today.

Hero of Disaster

Outstanding among the heroes, was Albert G. Duehler, who gave his life that others might live. He was discovered by rescuers pinned down by a steel girder, but called to rescuers that he was not very badly hurt and asked that they concentrate their efforts in getting at the more seriously injured, whose cries echoed around him. The rescuers heeded his plea, but when he was removed from the tangled mass of debris, an hour later, it was too late to save him. He died in the arms of those who lifted him from the wreckage and his body was conveyed to the temporary morgue across the street. Ten Georgetown college students, living at the S. A. E. fraternity house nearby volunteered their bodies from blood transfusion to save the life of Miss Caroline Upshaw, niece of Representative Upshaw of Georgia, who had one foot cut off and the other so badly mangled that may have to be amputated.

Lieutenant Colonel Taylor, U. S. A., bleeding from leg wounds, found that he could stand upon them and rose from his stretcher as they were about to carry him away and insisted upon tearing away with his bare hands the plaster and tangled wire skeins that covered the body of his daughter, who was rescued alive.

Wanted Twin Sister

A six year old red headed boy, whose name name was not learned, on being removed from the ruins, argued hotly against being carried away and insisted that he be permitted to remain until his twin sister had been rescued also. The rescuers, guided by the boys directions found the sister, who was only slightly hurt.

Three priests penetrated the ruins heedless of warnings and remained on duty to administer the last rites of the church to the dying.

About 9:30 o'clock this morning a warning cry was sounded about the scene of the wreckage at Eighteenth street and Columbia Road. The gaunt walls that reared fifty feet above the wrecked interior had begun to totter, and it was feared they would crash. The west wall had a bulge in it several feet in dimensions.

Police and the remaining soldiers ordered all persons away from the building and the red cross aid station set up in a confectionery store that stood in one corner of the building, was ordered to evacuate.

Chamber of Horrors

The interior of the First church of Christ, scientist, just around the corner from the ruined theatre, presented a gruesome sight this morning, after the last mutilated body had been removed to the city morgue or undertaking establishments. Throughout a ghastly Saturday night and all of a terrible Sunday, the church was literally a chamber of horrors. The dead, row on row, filled one side of the church. On the other side shirt sleeved and perspiring physicians, worked unceasingly over the grotesque, blanket-covered lumps held by bloodstained stretchers. One look usually sufficed to tell whether the stretchers held dead or living things. If dead the stretchers were gently deposited with the others in "dead row." If alive, they were even more gently borne out of the church to where ambulances, city and army, purred in the snowfilled street, their motors running, ready to dash for hospitals.

Today, with all the bodies gone, the church resembled nothing so much as an abandoned dressing station behind the lines of some French sector. Blood was spattered over the seats and walls and the rug was a sticky mass of dirt and snow and bits of clothing and wreckage.

Many Snowbound

Local hospitals were besieged today with scores of friends and relatives of the injured. Many Washingtonians who live in the outlying suburbs of Virginia and Maryland were forced to spend the week-end in Washington hotels because they could not get home thru the snow. Traffic was suspended in all directions, telephone service was uncertain and these facts added to the general confusion over missing persons. Families having members staying over in town, besieged hospitals to learn if their missing ones had been in the theatre.

Funerals of some of the victims were held today, although the majority of them will be tomorrow. Capital undertaking establishments worked throughout Sunday and all of last night preparing the bodies for interment.

An Army Marches On Its Stomach, Said Napoleon

The Great Corsican Knew That Success in Life Depends Upon Your Strength, Energy and Endurance

By HARRISON VAUGHN.

When Napolian led his victorious armies through Europe, his worst enemies were not the nations defending themselves against his smashing onslaught; but he was confronted by the graver question of how to provide nourishing food for his soldiers.

The Great Corsican realized long over a century ago, as has every commanding general since, that men's bodies must be perfectly nourished if they are to retain their natural strength, energy and vigor; in fact, that the very health of the human being is regulated almost entirely by the stomach. Underfeeding, insufficient nourishment, means loss of flesh, anaemia, lack of red blood and subsequent weakness of the entire system.

What such people need to enable nature to bring back their strength and vigor, restore their lost weight, and put them in fighting trim, with rich, red blood coursing through their veins is Tanlac, the powerful reconstuctive tonic and body builder.

A man or woman suffering from sour stomach, bad breath, biliousness, indigestion, or gas on stomach, is unfitted either for physical or mental labor. Sufferers from these ailments find life a burden; they look on the world through blue glasses, the joy and rewards of the vigorous, happy, normally healthy person is not theirs. Their troubles embitter them against the world, destroy their ambitions and make their lives dull and unhappy.

How foolish to continue in this condition when on every hand throughout the length and breadth of the land people by the thousands are daily testifying to the remarkable powers of Tanlac in conquering stomach troubles. This powerful reconstructive medicine builds up the weak and the despondent; gives them new hope and happiness and a new lease on life.

Tanlac's name has been praised by hundreds of thousands. Testimonials from every corner of the United States and Canada have shown conclusively that even in cases where patients had almost given up all hope and where men and women had believed themselves doomed to a life of misery and suxerin, Tanlac has overcome their troubles and brought back health, energy and happiness into their lives.

If you are not "fit as a fiddle" in the morning and don't feel better than when you went to bed; if your breath is offensive and you have that bad taste in your mouth, your body is not being nourished properly. What you need is Tanlac to restore you to normal so Nature can bring back the flesh you've lost, put the bloom of health in your cheeks, the spring of energy in your step and the sparkle of happiness and content in your eye.

NOTE—Tanlac Vegetable Pills are an essental and vitally important part of the Tanlac treatment. You cannot hope to get the most satisfactory results from Tanlac without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. Tanlac Vegetable Pills are absolutely free from calomel and are sold on a positive guarantee to give satisfaction.

Tanlac is sold in Elyria by J. Adolphus Thert and leading druggists everywhere.—Advt.

CHIROPRACTIC

Consists Entirely of Adjusting the Movable Segments of the Spinal Column to Normal Position

— FOR CHILDREN —

The first duty of parents to children relates to their health. The little fellows are men and women in the making. What they are worth to themselves and the world when formed and responsible is measured in terms of health. The Nation does not select the physically unfit. It needs above everything else a clean bill of health for best results. So do the community, the family and the individual.

Chiropratic is indorsed by more than five million of our people, who know its benefits, adhere to its practice for their health and commend the science to anyone in need of health. This science has proved by good results through a quarter century of time that a great percentage of sick and ailing children—no matter what their complaints may be called—can be restored to health, by adjusting the spine to insure freedom to the nerves.

The importance of the spine is shown by the following quotations:

The spine is the key to the entire health situation of the individual. It has more to do than any one factor with the maintainance of health on the one hand and the establishment of disease on the other."—Alfred Walton M. D. (Philadelphia), ex-president and chief of the surgical staff, Essex County, (N. J.) Hospital.

Supporting Dr. Walton's opinion, J. H. Crenshaw, M. D., (St Louis) says,

"Seventy-five per cent of the school children of St. Louis are afflicted with spinal deviations which will cause many grave and dangerous diseases * * * out of fifteen hundred boys examined at the Kansas City Y. M. C. A. more than fifty per cent were found with spinal defects, sure to produce grave consequences if not cared for."

Dr. W. H Sumply, M. D. of national note, made extensive investigations of the subject and gives it as his conclusion that eighty per cent of the entire population are afflicted with spinal deviations, which are the cause of so much nervousness, rheumatism, mental weakness and other diseases."

Chiropractic adjustment of the displaced vertebrae of sick and ailing children will restore health and prevent disease by the free action of the vital force of the body. There never was a child that didn't get sick sooner or later if the joints of its spine deviate and compress the nerves to interfere with vital force merely because that will affect normal resistance and normal resistance is health. Disease does not occur all at once. If vital resistance has been declining for some time it is due to interfere with the spinal nerves. As the result of this hindrance to vital forces the organs and parts gradually develop conditions where disease will set in and continue with varying effects until the nerve compression is lifted and normal current of vital energy restored.

An examination of your child's spine by a Chiropractor is logical, common sense and necessary to its health. No other profession specializes in the care of this important organ. Give your child the benefit of an expert adjustment of its spine in case of sickness or disorder and the result will not disappoint you. Thousands of children have been restored to good health in this way.

The Chiropractor does not treat the trouble, if there is trouble, but looks for its cause. He finds it and fixes it; and then Nature effects the "Cure."

The United Chiropractic Board of Education appointed the following committee of chiropractors to carry on an educational campaign for the science of chiropractic. Articles will be published in this newspaper each Monday.

The Department is very glad to report that now three young women are enjoying the privileges of the fund and it feels this work must go on so that many young people from our community may make use of this wonderful opportunity. Many Moved at Special Service

It looks like a real revival is taking place at the Methodist Episcopal church. Last night a crowd that filled the auditorium sat with intense attention while the Word was being preached. And they sang with the Spirit in such a manner that the presence of God was felt by those present. The theme was, "Christ All in All." It was shown that Christ was all in all in the great plan of redemption, both as regards God and as regards man. That He was the means of reconciliation and that by His death He made it possible for God "to be just and also the justifier of him who believeth." Also it was shown that Christ is all in all in the history of the world; in the civilization of the race; that He is all in all in art and music and the Bible. That He is the all in all for all time and for eternity. Without Him there is no hope of salvation for mankind.

When the invitation was given for any who wanted to accept Christ, a large number came forward, until the altar was crowded, and a large percentage of them were young men and women. Men and women were moved with deep emotion and strong conviction.

Subject for tonight, "Christ, the Lamb of God." Wednesday night, "What Think Ye of Christ?" Thursday night, "Christ or Barrabas, Which?"

BELLEVUE HAS BEST SCORING CAGE QUINTET

No change in the leadership of the Little Big Seven Basketball league was noted as the result of last week's games.

Bellevue remains the technical leaders of the league with three victories and no defeats, Bellevue not playing a league game Friday.

Lorain is tied for first honors figuring percentage the Lorain team also boasting of a 1000 per cent mark, having won both league contests played to date.

Oberlin holds third place with a mark of 750 per cent, Oberlin having won three of the four games played, its one setback coming at the hand of Bellevue.

Sandusky jumped from fifth place to fourth place as the result of its 33 to 16 victory over Elyria, that game practically putting Elyria out of the race, that team having lost both contests played.

Game of Hour

The game of the hour is the one scheduled between Lorain and Sandusky which will be played at Sandusky next Friday night. Sandusky seems to have bolstered its team considerably within the last few weeks and inasmuch as the Lorain-Sandusky tilt is scheduled for Sandusky, Coach Collins' lads will have to travel at their fastest every minute to keep ahead of the Sandusky crew.

The Sandusky team is leading all other teams in the league when it comes to points scored to date. The Winetown quintet has scored 93 points in the four games played. Its opponents in these four games have scored 92 points, which gives the Sandusky quintet a little better than a 500 per cent in scoring.

Bellevue is the leading scoring team in the league when it comes to average number of points scored per game.

Bellevue has scored an average of 27 points per game, its total points being 81 in the three games to date.

Lorain is right on the heels of Bellevue for the scoring honors with an average of 26 1-2 points per game, having scored a total of 43 points in the two league contests. Sandusky is third in average with a mark of 23 1-4 points per game.

Sandusky's weakness seems to lie in its guards, the four teams that have opposed that team running up the highest number of points against that team. The opponents of Sandusky in the four games played have registered 92 points.

Best Guards

According to the figures, Lorain and Bellevue have the best guarding system in the league as Lorain's opponents have scored only 21 points against it in the two league have scored 36 points against it in games while Bellevue's opponents three games. Lorain's average for points scored against it is 10 1-2 per game while Bellevue's average is 13 points per game.

Interest throughout the league this week will be in the Lorain-Sandusky game as neither of the two other contests are expected to affect the standing of the team.

Norwalk should give Bellevue a good game, but inasmuch as the contest is scheduled for Bellevue, the Norwalk outfit is not figured as the team that will be able to take the measure of the league leaders.

Elyria has shown nothing to date and Oberlin should win handily over them, the college town quintet being favored strongly inasmuch as the game is scheduled for the big floor at Oberlin.

TEMPLES DROP TWO TO MOOSE BOWLERS

The Moose dropped one game to the Temples last evening on the Gala alleys although the Temples bowled well. The second game was a close one the Moose losing it by but six pins. Heppebrand was in good form and was high man of the evening, while Wilcox was high for the Temples.

ELYRIA 'Y' 5 REORGANIZE, WANT GAMES

By CLIFF C. HENNINGS

One of the fastest Class 'A' cage teams ever brought together in Lorain county was organized last week at the Y. M. C. A. when the local "Y" Senior team again organized after disbanding earlier in the season due to financial difficulties.

A meeting was held last week at the Y. M. C. A. and "Bob" Rankin, former Elyria High cage star, was elected captain of the outfit. Every man on the Senior's squad has had much experience in the cage game —some of them have played Varsity ball on college teams.

Every member of the team of last year is back this season with the exception of "Art" Lockard, who is now playing college ball for Marietta College. The "Y" Seniors won the county championship from the Lorain Estarois last year and expect to repeat again this season.

Have Several Stars

The "Y" Seniors have several stars on their roster and are expected to repeat the good record they made for themselves last year. The team has been strengthened this year by the addition of Dwight V. Peabody, a former Ohio-State letter man in basketball and football. He was also selected as an end on the All-Western eleven in 1917. Peabody also is coaching the High school cage squad this season and much will be expected of him when the locals stack up against their opponents.

In Captain Rankin, Vaughn, Reynolds and Kuss, the local outfit has a quartette of guards who can be depended upon to keep the opposing forwards from appearing too boldly on the sweet side of the score sheet.

The center job is what we call "Sittin' pretty!" Geals and Peabody are both good men at outjumping and outpassing their opponents as well as breaking into the scoring column.

The forward positions are well-fixed as Bills, Keller and Granger are, perhaps, the fastest forwards in the county. Bills has been playing Varsity ball for Oberlin College, Kellers is assistant physical director of the local "Y" and has an accurate shooting eye. Granger was a former Elyria High star and also played for Ohio-Wesleyan.

Desire Games

The local machine is pending games with the Ford Service team, of Amherst, the Estarois, of Lorain, the Mansfield Clothiers and the American Legion of Oberlin. SCHEDULES OF EVENTS AT THE 'Y' THIS WEEK

The regular gymnasium classes of the association will run thruout the week with the following activities outside of the regular program:

On Tuesday evening the Newark Shoe basket ball team, which is a strong contender for honors in the City league, will play the Oberlin Business College boys on the 'Y' floor, starting at 8 o'clock.

Wednesday night at 7:30 the Industrial league gets under way on its second round of games. The Enameled Products are slated to play the General Phonograph and the Western Automatic the Columbia Steel. The General Phonograph is leading the league at present due to the defeat they handed the Columbia Steel men last week.

The City league likewise starts its second round of games on Wednesday evening, beginning at 8:30. The Legion and the Business College play the first game and the Faculty and Newark Shoe the second. The High School Faculty easily leads the league, having won all the games played.

On Friday, February 3, the Senior Church league is scheduled to show its wares. Starting at 8 p. m. the Second Congregational and St. John's Lutheran will play. Following this game the Methodists and the Church of Christ will get together and the First Congregational and the Grace Lutheran will play the third game. The Methodists so far have not been beat in the league so they hold down the first honors.

Eagles Leading In City League

The Eagles have a pretty good grip on first place in the City Bowling league, and if they keep up their present clip they bid fair to retain it. Their nearest rival, the Moose, are bowling somewhat better since their recent slump, but will have to do still better if they stay in the race. The Gala Temples and Electrics are well bunched for third place. The race for the tail end position is between the Comets and Perry's team. At the rate the Comets are now going Perry's team is in danger of sliding to the bottom of the list.

The standing:

Teams	Won	Lost
Eagles	36	9
Moose	32	13
Gala	29	16
Temples	25	20
I. C. Elect.	25	23
Court House	20	25

NEWARK SHOES PLAYS O. B. C., THIS EVENING

Oberlin Business college will play the Newark Shoe basketball team at the Y. M. C. A. Tuesday evening. A good preliminary will be played between the Church of Christ team and the Temple Druggists.

The Oberlin-Newark game will be a fast one, and well worth seeing, states the Newark manager.

TONSORIAL PRICES REMAIN SAME, HERE

When you get your hair cut in Elyria you dig down and pay 35c for it, and there is no discount for bald headed men who only want their alfalfa trimmed up a bit. You also pay 25c for a shave, and the callow youth with a bit of down on his cheeks, pays as much as the man with a week's growth of bristles.

In a good many towns throughout the State the price has been reduced to 40c for haircuts, and as low as 10c for shaves.

DANGER OF JUST LETTING A COLD RUN ITS COURSE

Common Coughs and Colds that Hang on Persistently Are Apt to Lead to Serious Complications, Declare Authorities.

Public Warned to Beware of a Three Days' Cough and Break It Up Before It's Too Late, by Taking Kurokol, the New Scientific Discovery

Money Refunded in Every Instance Where Kurokol Fails to Bring Relief.

Leading authorities are using every effort to arouse the public to danger of letting common colds just run their course, for it is now definitely known that many serious lung complications such as pneumonia, grippe, etc., are the direct result of colds that hang on persistently.

Colds are curable and preventable and it is a duty everyone owes himself as well as his neighbors to break up any cold they may contract, before some serious disease gets him in its clutches. It is pointed out that a three days' cough is nature's warning and the time for immediate action has arrived.

Of all the cough and cold remedies, Kurokol, the new scientific treatment, which has been accomplishing such remarkable results all over the United States and Canada, probably provides the safest, surest and quickest, as well as most practical, treatment for colds yet discovered.

According to the statements of thousands who have used it, Kurokol is almost magical in its effect. The first dose usually stops the tendency to sneezing and coughing and relieves the feeling of discomfort, and the second and third doses usually suffice to stop the progress of a cold altogether.

The wonderful efficiency of Kurokol in breaking up a cold is shown by the fact that all druggists are instructed to refund money in any case where it fails to give satisfactory results after three doses have been taken. Adv.

MEDINA JURY FREES WELLINGTON STOCKMAN

MEDINA, Jan. 31.—George A. Roice of Wellington, is found not guilty of obtaining property under false pretenses after the jury was out four hours in suit filed by R. O. Bowman. Roice said he had purchased cattle and had lost them in transit to Oklahoma and was unable to pay for them.

WANTS RIGHT OF WAY

Suit was filed today by Sarah Stone, Lorain, against Coates to enjoin him from refusing him the use of a driveway on Gawn's addition, A. street. He states that he purchased a piece of land and the deed calls for the right of way from the street to the rear of his property. There are now two houses on the property, and Coates who owns the property next to it, will not allow the plaintiff to use the driveway.

Claims Fraud In Note Transaction

Alleging that his signature to a cognovit note for $358.16 was obtained by fraud and false representation, C. R. Graham of the Oberlin Federal Bakeries today asked that the judgment taken against him and the Bakeries Co. be declared void.

He charges that the note was delivered after he had been told that the other members of the firm had agreed to sign it. He stipulated that unless they signed the note was to be destroyed. The other members did decline and Graham claims that after he had signed it it was altered. It was originally made out payable to the Oberlin Bank Co., and was then changed to make it payable to L. R. Bennett. He also states that there was no just consideration for the note and that they did not owe any where near such an amount.

DEMOCRACY MOVES ON IN SPITE OF THE FEARFUL ONES

In a country as large as ours and with such widely divergent interests there is always a danger of the clash of sectional interests. In the days following the Civil War, the clash came between the North and the South. That division still holds politically in a solid political South, though in many sections of the South, as in Alabama and Louisiana, the economic interests do not differ very much from those of Pennsylvania and Ohio.

With the growth of the West, although political lines still hold, a new alignment is evident in the agricultural bloc of the South and West against the business and banking interests of the East.

This new alignment has developed strange bedfellows, as politics has proverbially always done. Secretary Weeks goes to Boston and deplores the organization of the farmer bloc: Secretary Wallace, who sits next to him at the cabinet table goes to Iowa and tells the farmers of the West that the only chance for them to get their interests considered in Congress is by adopting the methods which Secretary Weeks deplores and denounces as subversive of party government.

This is a pretty how-dy-do; and yet somehow we manage to get along, and often fight under the same party banner. We must not take too serjously the solemn warnings of those who see in every new or progressive movement a great danger to democracy. The old ship sails on. As Carlyle has said, "In the clashing of conflicting interests the truth has always been struck out."

We may be sure that laws will always be moperative, however great majorities there may be behind them, which fly in the face of natural and economic laws. The resolution of the greatest legislative body in the world cannot affect the sunrise or the tides, any more than King Canute could stay the approaching waves. What we need to know is the facts that hold the world together, and govern our legislation by those facts. "Facts are facts," said Napoleon, "and you can no more sit on them than you can sit on the point of a bayonette."

The fool congressman from New York who introduced a bill into Congress to suppress by law the formation of combinations in Congress would have suppressed the Republican party when it first appeared as a bloc to dispute the ascendancy of the old Whigs.

WE KNOW IT BUT HOW CAN WE HELP IT?

Here is a writer in a current monthly who is telling us some startling things about the intelligence and efficiency of our polyglot and polychrome population. And she is a woman.

The war, she tells us, showed what we were developing. The white draft, as a whole, had 22% of inferior men. Of all the foreign born 46% were of a very low grade of intelligence. Of the entire negro draft, 89% were under the mental age of thirteen.

Our only hope this writer avers is that the rank and file shall become willing to choose honest men of a high grade type to lead them.

That has always been the problem. We could wish that this author would tell us how we may get the people at large always to recognize the honest man of the superior type.

The framers of the Constitution were so distrustful of the intelligence of the common people that they instituted an electoral college composed of a given number of representatives of every state. The voter was permitted to choose members of this electoral college. These elected members were to exercise a free choice in the election of a president of the United States. The Constitutional provision still stands, but it has become in practice a dead letter. The common people voted directly for Mr. Harding or Mr. Cox.

There is no way of escaping the consequences upon government of a low grade of intelligence except through the slow process of education and conservation.

When the President sent a letter of commendation to a man getting $20 who had sixteen children, whom he could not adequately care for, he showed a kindly nature, but not good sense. The quality of our population is more important than the quantity.

The psychology tests during the late war did a valuable work in revealing the low intelligence of so great a body of our people. Somehow we should institute measures to profit by this work.

They tell one about "Bill" Sudo, the undertaker that's hard to believe. "Bill" was laying out a bald headed man one evening, and he wore a wig and try as he would "Bill" couldn't get that wig to stick, so he sent his attendant out to get some Pages' glue—He was just leaving when "Bill" called him "Never mind it's all right now I found a tack."

Big Savings For The Thrifty Housewife

Few homes indeed do not feel the need of economy. The necessity of making every penny count touches the purse of every housewife. It is doubtful if there is a single article employed as a food or in the preparation of food that demands more buying wisdom than Baking Powder. Upon its quality depends the success and economy of the bakings themselves.

Calumet Baking Powder enables the housewife to make three worth while savings. She saves when she buys it—it is moderate in price. She saves when she uses it—she uses only half as much as is required of most other powders. She saves materials it is used with—it never permits bake-day failure. Any women can use Calumet with absolute certainty of best results—delicious, tasty bakings that are pure and wholesome.

True home economy of time, material and effort is completely handled in Reliable Recipes, the 76-page Cook Book and Household Hints. A copy is yours FREE—for the asking. Address Home Economics Dept. Calumet Baking Powder Co., 4100 Fillmore St., Chicago, Ill.—Advt.

1ST NATIONAL BANK IN ELYRIA

At Elyria Theaters

rand—The Dempsey-Carpen- fight pictures are now being n and will be for all the week e pictures have made a hit ever shown. There are five full of action, and next to g the batte itself, the spectat- ket all the thrills that they ld have had if they had been he ringside.

rand— The gripping film r the Hill,' started Sunday. a splendid production that de- home life with all its joys sorrows, and is full of many ly lessons. It will be shown g the coming week, and is a g attraction.

American— Beginning yesterday and continuing through Wednesday, "A Voice in the Dark." The scene is laid in a private sanitarium and the heroine hears her sister is engaged to the doctor who once tried to wrong her. The doctor is later found murdered, but she is exonerated by one of the patients who could see but could not hear, and another who could hear but could not see. It's a weird story all the way through.

Dreamland—The usual good program is being shown including a first class comedy.

Colonial— Starting yesterday for one week Charlie Chaplin in "The Idle Class; and Norma Talmadge in "The Wonderful Thing." This is a double bill that is considered the best this theater has ever offered. Charlie Chaplin is at his best. He dresses in regular attire, then puts on the clothing of a gentleman of leisure, and later dons a suit of armor. There are many funay scenes and it is one of the best of Chaplin's pictures. In "The Wonderful Thing," Norma Talmadge has an opportunity for exhibiting her talent for comedy. She is seen in an entirely new role in this respect and the audience is kept in good humor all the way.

Rialto—Those two laugh-makers of international fame, "Mutt and Jeff," whose antics, adventures, escapades and idiosyncracies have contributed endless mirth and gayety to the nations of the world, are underlined to disturb our peace of ennui at Rialto theater two nights commencing Tuesday, Jan. 31. They will be seen in high class, wholesome, mirthful, rib-tickling and rollicking comedy in two acts and six scenes, entitled, "Mutt and Jeff in Chinatown." Pretty girls, lilting, catchy and ear-haunting tunes, melodies and jingling music predominates. Seats now on sale.

Home again Charley Robinson and his merry Parisian Flirts at the Rialto theater, matinee and night, Friday night, Feb. 3. O, what a bunch of talent! and such costuming! Pretty baby dolls; plenty of good scenes. No matter how sad you are you must laugh. Look at the names of the stars who will appear: Chas. Robinson, May Bernehardt, Irving Lewis, Andy Martini, Freda Lehr, Mable Lea, Ralph Standen and Sue Smith and May Allen. The slogan is "Be there, you'll say it's good." Special ladies' matinee at 2:30 p. m. Seat sale Thursday.

February gets its name from the old Romain god "Februs," the deity whose special business it was to produce fertility in nature.

MORE KENTUCKY DISORDERS AS TROOPS DEPART

NEWPORT, Ky., Jan. 30—Further trouble is feared today in the strike zone around the Newport rolling mills, whose employees have been on strike for some time. Following the withdrawal of Kentucky guardsmen, Saturday, one of the most violent outbreaks of the many that have marked the trouble occurred late last night when a mob, believed to have been composed of strike sympathisers, attacked the home of John Hicinbothen, a mill worker, drove him and his family from their dwelling and wrecked the cottage.

Fire broke out and two rooms of the house were entirely burned before the fire was under control. During the progress of the fire someone cut the hose of the chemical engine, scattering streams of acid and soda solution in all directions. An attempt was made to wreck the auto of Fire Chief King it is said.

During this disturbance, Governor Edwin Morrow was in secret conference in Cincinnati with the mill's owners.

No statement could be gotten from the governor following the conference, but it is said he will remain here awaiting the outcome of further developments in the strike zone.

All this week there will be at the Colonial Theater a program that has never before been equaled in Elyria.

First is Charles Chaplin in "The Idle Class." This is the first comedy that Chaplin has produced since "The Kid." In this comedy he plays a dual role, first you see him as the tramp. You then see him as a millionaire hubby in love with a cocktail instead of his wife. This comedy is a riot from the first Tee to the time they undress him with a can opener.

Second is Norma Talmadge in her latest picture, in "The Wonderful Thing." In this production Norma Talmadge takes a new step towards the ultimate in screen entertainment. In this picture Norma holds a surprise. There is wonderful Drama and wonderful comedy too. Look out, Connie!

Last but not least is the Colonial orchestra furnishing music that is taken from especially prepared synchronized music score.

2 KILLED, 40 HURT IN INDIA MILL RIOT

LONDON, Jan. 30—Two men were killed and forty wounded when policemen fired upon rioting mobs of jute mill workers at Titagarh, India, said a dispatch from Calcutta today. Thousands of mill hands were involved. Nineteen ringleaders were arrested.

CUYAHOGA LINE ROAD LOOKS GOOD

Unless there is too much opposition to the plan to widen and resurface the main market road from this city east to the Cuyahoga county line, it is probable that the commissioners will decide to go ahead with the improvement.

Residents of Ridgeville were invited to meet with the commissioners Saturday to discuss this subject and it was generally believed that the majority of the property owners abutting on the Cleveland road will request the commissioners to provide a 19 foot surface of brick construction. The state highway department has agreed to stand one half of the cost of the proposed improvement.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness," and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logy" and "punky." They "clear" dullness from the eyes, "freshen" complexion, tone and ...

LIN WINS EXCITING GAME FROM AGGIES

By H. S. STEPHAN

OBERLIN, Jan. 30—In the most exciting contest witnessed at Warner gym this season, the Crimson and Gold Varsity nosed out the Aggie quintet 26-25. The game was fast and rough. At no time during the contest did either team get a commanding lead and the fans were kept on edge throughout the contest.

Oberlin started the combination hit upon during the Kenyon game last Saturday and the result was pleasing. Team play and clever passing were much in evidence and every man on the Crimson and Gold team caged at least one field goal during the contest. Hallings, playing his first full game at a forward position, played well and deserves credit for his snappy defensive paying.

Wheeler was high point man for Oberlin, while Winters put up the best guarding exhibition seen here this season. Foster and Brown played best for the Aggies.

THREE LEAGUES HAD MANY GOOD CAGE BATTLES

Eight good basket ball games were played Saturday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. when the three major basket ball leagues played their scheduled games.

Three games were played in the senior church league three in the Grammar School league and two in the High School Class League. The Church of Christ and the Methodists started the ball rolling and kept it going in high speed for the game was won in the last few seconds of play by Vessey making a field goal. The game ended 18 to 16 in favor of the Church of Christ. Vessey making 7 of his teams 18 points. The Congregational team had a hard time defeating the small Episcopal team by the score of 9 to 8 in the second game. The latter team could not locate the basket on most of their shots. The Methodists had an easy time with the Second Congregationals and won 39 to 0. Halpin and Horan scored 31 points between them.

Hamilton and McKinley opened the Grammar School league and it ended as tho the latter had a walkaway for they defeated the fast Hamilton five 22 to 2. Robson and Hamlin did the work for Hamilton. In the second game the Lincoln five continued their winning streak by defeating the Jefferson team 28 to 6. Vessey and Jenkins did the best for Franklin. The games will be put in their appearance on the game was forfeited to the team.

The High School Class League closed the last on the card and in the first game the Freshmen lost to the Junior 13 to 8. Brown for the Juniors and Smith for the Seniors played the best games. The Sophomores continued to win as they defeated the Senior by a big score of 43 to 6. Horan made 9 field goals for the Sophomores.

A large crowd of three hundred spectators were present for the games and the rooting was good for all games. The Junior Officials Corps handled all games and are developing into capable officials. Every game Saturday being well handled.

OBERLIN PLAYS ELYRIA THERE NEXT FRIDAY

OBERLIN, Jan. 30.— Oberlin high plays Elyria high at Oberlin next Friday evening. Elyria has a strong team and beat the strong Wellington high five last Saturday.

This will be Oberlin's fourth league game and they hope to make it three wins out of four. Elyria has only played one league game and lost that to Bellevue 23 to 14. This is a better showing than Oberlin made against Bellevue and so a good game can be expected.

Dwight Peabody, a graduate of Ohio State., is coaching Elyria high and has developed a good team out of the material available.

The game starts at 7.15 and will probably be followed by another game between two teams not yet named.

AGREEMENT STYLE IS NOT NECESSARY

Judge H. G. Redington has decided that it is not necessary for Harry Ronay, Lorain printer, to set forth in his petition whether the agreement he entered into with Mayor William Grall of Lorain, Mike Peer and Harry Shiff was a written or oral one.

Ronay filed suit in common pleas court to recover $500 from the defendants for printing several thousand copies of the Lorain Citizen, claiming that only $340 of the agreed price had been paid him.

The defendants filed a motion requesting Ronay to state with whom the agreement was made, who paid the $340 and to state the nature of the agreement.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs Kidneys, then the Back hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advt.

KATIE'S KNOCK

"Katie," Lillian said to her maid one morning, "I have been trying for a long time to break you of the habit of knocking on doors before you enter. Now I'm going to make one last effort to break you of it. Every time you knock on my door after this, I'm going to give you a dime."

"Yes, my mother!" she replied.

"Here," Lillian held out a clean and handed each of us a dime. "Katie, as we can't see well, I want to be sure."

"You bet," Katie declared cordially. It is her favorite expression on occasions, and she uses it in and out of season, much as Lillian does her invariable "Yes, mother," no matter what the sex of the person whom he is speaking. "You bet I don't want nobody to see you. I don't like—of anybody see you."

"Yes You Mean?"

With her ostrich propensity she was still keeping up the fiction that we did not know the sex of the person who had so terrified her.

"Nobody will," Lillian said confidently, then, as Katie turned toward the kitchen, instead of the front door, she asked quickly: "Which way are you going?"

Katie stopped and looked at us uncertainly.

"You say dot Jeem no stop me tonight?" she asked.

"No, Katie, he will not trouble you tonight," I returned, and she must have caught something unconsciously ominous in my tone, for she turned on me quickly, demanding: "Yot you mean by dot?"

"Nothing at all," I returned, making my tone purposely impatient. "We told you before that Jim had promised Mrs. Underwood not to interfere with you tonight. Now tell us in which direction we are going, how far and where."

"We going down on dot old wood road to Sag Harbor, just beyond dot beeg rock vere dot automobile got turned over. Dere a leetle road turn off from beeg road, and we no down dot a few feet out of sight."

I shivered irrepressibly, for I knew the spot, and a lonelier, more dangerous place for a night encounter with a probably desperate man could not be imagined. The road is a winding, tortuous one, a dream of sylvan beauty in the daytime, but a dangerous thoroughfare by night, and there were not a dozen cars a night traversing it.

"But that is a mile around the road," I said. "We never can make it in time."

"Hoosh—Listen!"

"We not going by road, Katie retorted. "Dot only leetle ofer half-mile across pasture and through dot wood path to beer road, and I can leex you cop fine in place to hide vere you can hear everything."

"All right, Katie, go ahead," I said impatiently, and in another minute we were outside the house with Mother Graham latching the door behind us. That her old fingers were tremulous with terror for us, I well knew, and I mentally paid tribute to her gallant spirit in keeping down any expression of her feeling as she saw us forth.

"Shade those flashlights, and keep their light on the ground," was the only advice she had given us as she let us out the door, and we accepted and acted upon the suggestion as soon as the intense darkness made it necessary for us to use them.

I shall not soon forget that toilsome, nerve-racking journey through the pasture land and woods to the old wood road, Katie, because she knew the trail, stalked ahead, using the flashlight in the more difficult places, letting us follow her almost indistinct outline in the easier places. The only words uttered were a whisper of mine to Lillian when we had gone but a few rods on our way.

"Suppose he discovers—and turns ugly."

Lillian did not speak in reply, but she reached out her left hand, took mine and guided it to the thing which the fingers of her right hand were firmly grasping. I had no need for words as I touched the cold steel. I recognized the little silencer pistol which Lillian only carries in moments of unusual danger. I needed nothing more to tell me what estimate she placed upon the encounter before us.

And then we had come out upon the wood road, and in another minute had glided into the other path and were being hidden by Katie in a little thicket of bushes, from which we could distinctly hear voices either on the main road or in the little lane. Katie, herself, stayed with us, whispering tensely:

"Ven I hear vistle, one, two—one, two, three, den I go out. Hoosh—listen!"

Down the road came the expected signal, and the girl stepped out into the little lane. The whistle came nearer, so quickly and with such absence of other noise that it did not take a Sherlock Holmes to deduce that the man was riding a bicycle. We were so intent upon the queer whistle that we heard only subconsciously the noise of an approaching motor car in the opposite direction.

And then—the sight haunts my eyes yet—the car rounding the curve, caught the cyclist who had no lamp and hurled him almost to our feet.

CONFERENCES AND NO PROGRESS

These are the days of conferences. When something is the matter call together a group of men and women in Washington, talk it all over, draw up a few innocuous resolutions, give some general advice which preverse human nature always wants the other fellow to take, and, presto, the thing is NOT changed.

"We're a great people," as Mr. Dooley is in the habit of saying to Hennesy. We Americans, he would say, find a mosquito in the house, and go after it slam bang. We step on the cat, knock over the baby, fall over the piano. But somehow we get the mosquito. The Englishman finds one in his house, makes a few ineffectual slap at it, and when he finds he cannot get it, he resigns himself to the situation, calls his house "Mosquito Lodge," and imagines the mosquito is singing "God save the King."

The unemployment conference has gone. It sat for a number of months, its members took themselves seriously, and the man out of a job wonders what all came of it. The nine-power conference is petering out. The Big Bertha which Mr. Hughes fired at the opening gave us some hope. But ever since we have heard little but pop guns. The Chinese delegate, Ma Soo, says that so far as doing China any good, he might as well have stayed in Pekin.

Now we are having an agricultural conference in Washington. Over a hundred agricultural big wigs are sitting together talking it over. Probably when they get through, the farmer will be wondering why wheat and corn continue to go down in price, as they are wondering why the Emergency Tariff enacted for their benefit has brought them nothing.

Conferences are good. They at least show what cannot be done. It is worth something to know that But why would it not be a brave act for some of these conferences to tell interested parties to start with that some things cannot be done. It would lay a lot of that restless expectancy which keeps up that deferred hope that makes the heart sick.

And now it appears that the United States will probably not be represented at the most important of all conferences to be held in Genoa in March Our ills are not national, but international. Let us keep on being indifferent about the conditions in Europe, continue our policy of isolation, and we shall become a hermit nation like that from which Japan emerged when Commodore Perry battered down the gates at Japanese ports

COMMERCIAL UNITY OF NORTH AMERICA

Canada and the United States have been trying for many years to maintain two separate commercial areas in North America.

Natural laws of commerce, having world wide application, ordain that there shall be only one commercial area in North America; the continent is naturally a commercial unit.

Tariff laws restricting the free flow of North American commerce react unfavorably upon the business stability of, and cause intermittent periods of prosperity and depression in, both Canada and the United States.

You cannot maintain two separate commercial units any more than you can maintain a separate commercial union for each separate state. There is no other area in the world which can be compared to the North American commercial unit area, unless it be Australia.

In Australia the absolute impossibility of keeping up separate state commercial units in a continental area which nature had designed for a unit area was demonstrated at immense cost to all concerned, and creation of the commonwealth of Australia brought the country into line with the law of nature ordaining a single commercial unit.

North America has even more urgent reason for giving effect to the natural law of commercial unity than Australia.

There are greater diversity of climatic conditions, greater diversity of products, greater communities dependent for economical distribution of necessaries of life upon producing areas divided by the artificial tariff line than ever existed in Australia or anywhere else in the world.

One continental tariff, to produce revenue and prevent dumping, applying to all overseas sources, and divided between the United States and Canada on the basis of population, will form the outer boundary of the continental commercial unit.

Within the unit, absolutely free commerce, unrestricted flow of business, in line with natural laws of supply and demand and economies of distribution.

Given these conditions, the commercial abnormalities and political trade agitations of Canada and the United States will largely disappear. Both countries will gain a powerful factor towards permanent prosperity.—The Vancouver Sun

Free Pass to Colonial For Person Guessing the Name of Promising Star

Elyria, O., January 31, 1922.
Photoplay Editor, Chronicle-Telegram.
Dear Sir:

It has been suggested to us by one of our patrons that young stars, like young corn, need encouragement, particularly the young male players who are working their way to fame.

Our friend insisted that the great majority of those who derive their entertainment from the screen would like to see this encouragement accorded and that they would do their part if we would do ours. The question immediately arose "How?" Again the obliging and long-sighted fan supplied the answer—that the Colonial theater should ADOPT A STAR. It was a surprising idea, but examination showed it to be quite feasible.

And when we asked "Who?" he put forward the name of a young man who is fast rising to prominence.

Well, we're going to adopt him, but while we are making the necessary arrangements and getting his consent, we would like to find out how many of you readers know who he is. In his name are eighteen letters, three of which are "R."

A free pass awaits every one of your readers who send to us a correct guess as to the name of the Colonial Theater adopted star before six o'clock Wednesday evening.

Mr. Graham was sent by John R. Mott last summer to study conditions in the colleges and universities.

have always represented viewpoint; that the monarch exists for the sake of the people; not people for the sake of the monarch."

He confesses that "those long lonesome years have taught me patience; taught me to regard everything from a more objective standpoint."

This document, which is destined to create a world wide sensation, and bound to surprise, if not actually shock a majority of princes and his own large monarchist following, is a letter to the famous constitutional jurist privy councillor, Dr. Zoru, of Bonn University who taught young Wilhelm when the latter was a student there.

The letter contains the most friendly and liberal expression of sympathy toward labor ever uttered by any member of the Hohenzollern dynasty. The document will be published tomorrow (Wednesday) morning in the nationalist organ Der Tag. An introductory note will explain that Professor Zorn decided to publish the letter because it was apt to rectify "the false picture of the former heir to the German throne, which is existing in many minds."

The letter is dated Wieringen, October 15, 1921. It is believed the recent publication of letters that were exchanged between the former kaiser at Doorn and Field marshal Von Hindenburg, former commander in chief of the German army, was part of the reason for exposing the present views to the public.

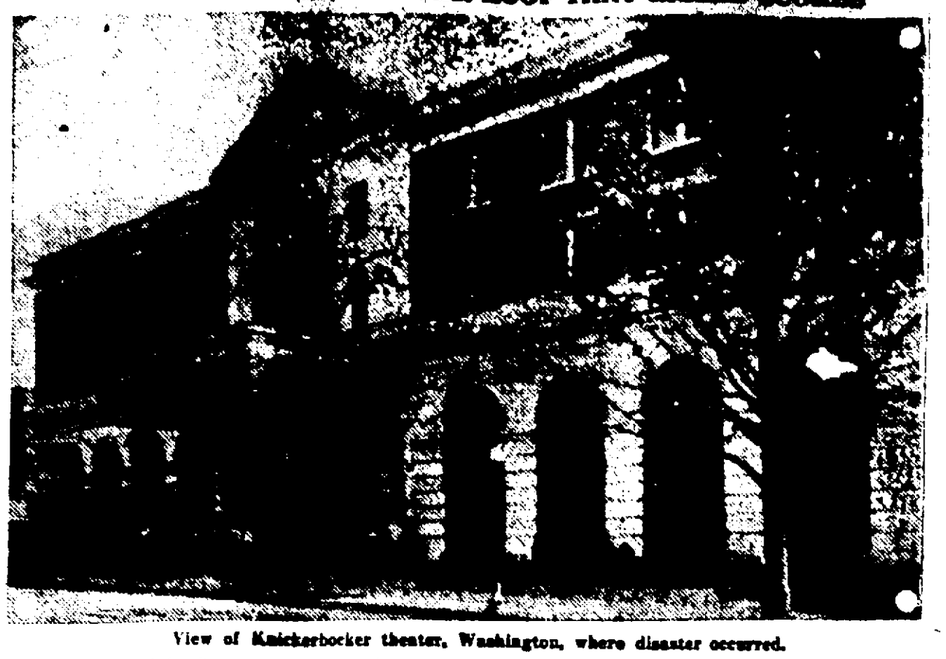
PROBE COLLAPSE OF THEATER ROOF THAT KILLED SCORES



View of Knickerbocker theater, Washington, where disaster occurred.

Investigation of the disaster at the Knickerbocker motion picture theater in Washington, D. C., in which over 100 persons were killed and over 100 others injured, is now under way. A heavy fall of snow caused the roof of the theater to collapse. The falling roof carried the balcony with it. But for the storm which brought the snow and kept hundreds of persons from attending the show several hundred more persons might have met death.

NO CHANGE HERE IN MILK PRICES

Milk prices throughout the state continue to come down according to continuous reports received from a number of towns and cities. Eleven cents for quarts, and six cents for pints seems to be the regular thing. This city continues to pay 12c for quarts and 7c for pints.

Manager Robson of the Park-Home Dairy states that he sees no chance of the price coming down for the next month at least.

After Sickness What You Need is Vinol

Here Is Proof:—Moodus, Conn.—"The 'Flu' left me run-down with a weak heart and stomach, so I would often have sinking spells, and it was hard for me to keep around and do my housework. No matter what I took I did not seem to gain, but one day I read about Vinol in a paper and decided to try it. I soon felt better, and it has built me up so fast that I can truly say it is the finest remedy known. It has proved 'worth its weight in gold' to me, as it has restored my health so quickly."—Mrs. Wm. H. Lyman, Moodus, Conn.

GRAND

The papers of the last two or three days have been filled with the terrible story of the great disaster in the Knickerbocker Theater in Washington, D. C.

The public mind is filled with apprehension because of this very unfortunate and sad catastrophe. It is with a sense of profound satisfaction that the management of the Grand Theater can assure the people of Elyria that the construction of this building is such that they are amply and abundantly protected at all times against either a disaster of similar or different character. We assure you that the construction of the Grand theater is of the strongest and most enduring materials that modern science has been able to invent.

The object of this announcement is to bring forth facts so as to remove at all times any doubts pertaining to the safety of the Grand theater building, and to substantiate these facts, we are issuing this statement to the people of Elyria so they may feel absolutely secure in sending their families and enjoying the many wonderful pictures we are putting on the screen with the assurance that they are amply protected against any disaster.

It is the belief in Washington that the Knickerbocker accident was caused by the excessive heavy fall of snow falling on the roof thereby causing a stupendous weight, resulting in the loss of life. It is with no little satisfaction I call your attention to the fact that the roof of the Grand theater building is conical in design, thereby making it practically impossible for any weight to accumulate.

I further state that at any time Elyria experiences a snow storm reaching a fall of snow of more than two inches that a special group of workmen are detailed to remove from the roof any snow that accumulates, thereby protecting at all times the Grand theater patrons.

I might also call your attention to a quotation from the findings of the Industrial Commission of the State of Ohio regarding the roof of the Grand theater which is in part as follows: "A large segmental wooden truss, known in common practice as a "Chicago Truss," is used to support the roof, said truss is of seasoned timber and is safe, sound and adequate in every way to perform the function for which intended."
